Dear Mr Sewell

The Prime Minister has asked me to thank you for your recent correspondence, received via the Downing Street website. I am sorry for the delay in replying.

As you can imagine, Mr Brown receives thousands of letters each week and regrets that he is unable to reply personally to them all.

As the Department for Business, Enterprise and Regulatory Reform (formerly known as the Department of Trade and Industry) is responsible for this matter, Mr Brown has asked me to forward your letter to that Department so that they may reply to you direct.

Yours sincerely
